Cookies
If you visit our web sites, it may be that save information in the form of cookies on your computer. Cookies are small text files that are sent from a web server to your browser and are saved on your computer. Thereby, no personal information about the user is saved; instead, only the IP address is. This information serves to help you be automatically recognized the next time you visit our web sites and to simplify your navigation. Cookies enable us to e.g. recommend a web site that may be of interest to you or to save your password, so you do not have to reenter it every time.

You can prevent cookies from being saved on your hard drive by adjusting the settings in your browser accordingly. If you do not accept cookies, this will lead to limiting the function of our offer.

Google Analytics
This web site Google Analytics, a Google Inc. web analysis service. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "Cookies", text files that are saved on your computer and that you make possible to analyze the use of the web site.

The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is normally sent to a Google server in the USA and saved there. If IP anonymization is activated on this web site, your IP address will however be shortened by Google within the European Union and in other contractual countries in the agreement about the European market.

Only in exceptional cases is the full IP address sent to the Google server in the USA and shortened there. Google will use this information on behalf of the operator of the web site, in order to analyze your use of the web site, to compile reports about web site activity and in order to further provide the web site operator with web site use and Internet use associated services. The IP address transferred from your browser within the frame of Google Analytics will not be combined with other Google data.
You can prevent cookies from being saved by adjusting your browser software settings accordingly; however, we would like to inform you that in this case, you would not be able to take advantage of all the functions this web site has to offer.

In addition, you can prevent the collection of data generated by cookies and the information about your web site use (incl. your IP address) that is sent to Google as well as the processing of this data by Google by going to the following link (http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en) and download and install the browser plug-in provided.

Additional information can be found here http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en and/or at http://www.google.com/intl/en_uk/analytics/privacyoverview.html (general information about Google Analytics and data privacy). We would like to inform you that Google Analytics has been expanded to the code "gat._anonymizelp();" on this web site in order to guarantee the anonymous collection of IP address (so-called IP masking).
